Founder & CEO - Taskfulness

SCAN ME

26. 07.2024 | Rudower Chaussee 28 A | 5.30 PM onwards

A visionary entrepreneur who recognized her ADHD from a young age and turned it into a mission to master distractions. In our modern world, dominated by screen time, she was inspired to create a digital solution that addresses this prevalent issue. This inspiration led to the creation of Taskfulness.

Taskfulness is an innovative AI-powered mobile and desktop app designed to replace unconscious scrolling with small, achievable tasks that align with both personal and career goals.
